THE VAULT OF HORROR

Even after all these years people still talk about the greatness of the International Non-Sport Convention that was held annually at New Jersey's Parsippany Hilton in the early 1990s. The show routinely attracted more than 50 dealers and over 500 attendees across an intensive three day period. Storied dealers, like Roxanne Toser, Mark Macaluso and Robert Foster were always in attendance, selling their wares and telling their stories to an eagerly receptive public. Cards for sale were physically accessible, inspectable, touchable, and usually price negotiable. A lot of the fun, even if you weren't buying, was in browsing items you've never seen before and would probably never see anywhere else. Dealer Ron Wilson (Witcraft) used to shine spotlights on his more esoteric items to add drama to the proceedings.

Although the show was large enough to burst across several showrooms, aisles and dealer tables were always packed to the brim with collectors, even to the point of making movement difficult. Usually, a little known in-person auction was held after the event closed, to the delight of dealers and in-the-know collectors. Ah, the good old days.

But where are all those collectors now? In retrospect it appears that some of them weren't really there for the love of the hobby. They weren't even non-sport aficionados, but baseball investors looking for the next big profit-making purchase. Most of them left eventually when they discovered non-sport cards wouldn't appreciate in value the way sport cards do.

Now, card investors are taking it all to the next level. Technology blog TechCrunch reports a collectible card trading platform named Alt launched last year with $31 million in funding to change the way hobby investments work. To sell a card on Alt, it first must be graded by BGS, PSA or SGC and then sent to Alt's Vault. The Vault is a light controlled, temperature controlled, fire protected facility. Once accepted, ownership can be transferred from buyer to buyer, with 99% staying in the Vault after each sale. Of course, Alt takes its 1.5% cut after each asset transfer. So far, Alt users have stored over $70 million worth of cards, mostly sports, in their Vault, but a smattering of game and non-sports can be found throughout the listings. Interested? Go to onlyalt.com to learn more.

Obviously, there is a large cadre of folks who don't have a desire to display their cards and prefer this passionless transaction process. As a dedicated collector who loves the smell of cardboard in the morning (with apologies to Apocalypse Now) I find this hermetically sealed method of asset trading cold and appalling. To me, part of the old school joy is the in-person looking, reading, touching, and possessing, none of which happens in the Vault. Worst of all, there is no face-to-face interaction in the buying or selling of cards; it's all just strictly business. There may be no contact on eBay either but at least you physically possess the card after you buy it. NSU

1964 LEAF MUNSTERS UNOPENED BOX SELLS FOR $5,711.20

A recent Hake's auction offered a desirable Leaf Munsters full box, certified by the Baseball Card Exchange. The auction ended on November 3, 2021 with a final auction price of $5,711.20, which included a buyer's premium of 18%.

The unopened box consists of 24 packs, each containing cards and a sticker insert. Complete high grade sets are tough to find due the glossy surfaces that are easily scratched, so the cards coming from this box should be in top shape. Unopened material from the 1960s is always hard to locate and desirable, and this box is no exception.

CHICAGO NON-SPORT CARD SHOW CONTINUES GREAT TRADITION

The latest edition of the Chicago Non-Sport Card Show was held on October 23rd and 24th at the Holiday Inn in Carol Stream, Illinois. The show has a history dating back to the late 1990s. The event was first promoted by Steve Gold, then Paul Maiellaro, and now by dealers Ed Webb of Sci-Fi Cards and Kevin Bennett of K & B Cards. The show has evolved throughout the years, has a loyal following and is looking to generate more interest with each new, twice yearly installment.

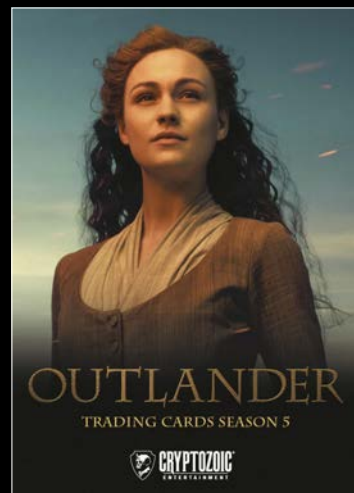

The show features a mix of vintage and modern cards, along with other related collectibles. Promo cards available to collectors at the show included

CHICAGO NON-SPORT CARD SHOW

Game of Thrones Iron Anniversary Series 2 P2, and Perna Studios Elementals 2 P1, among other promos as well. Guest artist Kevin Cleveland was on hand to meet collectors and he also created Sci-Fi Cards promo P66, which was also available to attendees. Collectors and dealers also have a get together on Friday night for dinner and friendly conversation at the hotel restaurant. The next show will be held on May 13th and 14th, 2022. Make plans to attend now if you can and help support and grow the show. Thanks to show attendee and NSU writer Don Norton for his input on this show report!

CRYPTOZOIC ENTERTAINMENT OFFERS OUTLANDER SEASON 5 PROMOS FOR NATIONAL HOBBY SHOP DAY

On December 11, 2021 GTS Distribution offered hobby shops the opportunity to participate in a day celebrating local hobby dealers. Among the offerings of interest to non-sport collectors were exclusive Outlander season 5 promos, cards P3 and P4, featuring Jamie Fraser on P3 and Claire Fraser on P4. Only select hobby shops who ordered a set amount of Cryptozoic products received the P4, making it challenging to find.

One hundred and fifty hobby shops participated, so lucky collectors who were able to visit and support those brick and mortar shops were able to add a unique promo or two from the popular Outlander series to their collections. Cryptozoic announced on December 13, 2021 that P3 can be preordered from the Cryptozoic Store for January shipping and that P4 will be available through other promotions so collectors will have opportunities if National Hobby Shop Day was not an option.

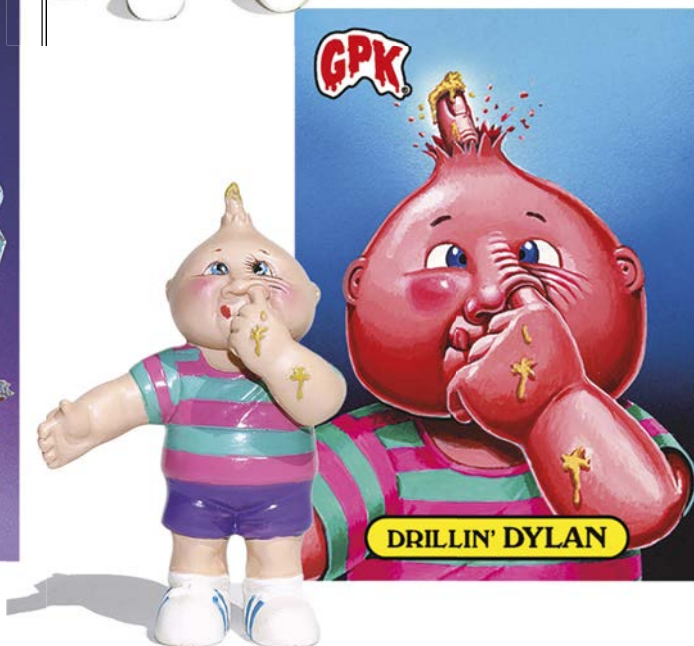

ART DE BART ORIGINAL ART CARD AT MASTERPIECE AT AUCTION

One of the most desired of modern non-sport inserts, the SkyBox 1993 Simpsons set contained 40 randomly inserted redemption cards that allowed fortunate collectors an opportunity to redeem it for an original one-of-a-kind art card from the Simpson's creator, Matt Groening.

An example was offered by Heritage Auctions and closed on November 18, 2021 at an astounding price of $15,600. This card featured original art of iconic Simpson's character Bart, signed by Matt Groening and numbered 8 out of 400. This example has been graded a gem mint 10 by Professional Sports Authenticators. The redemption has long since expired and SkyBox is no longer in business so it is unknown exactly how many of the original art cards are in circulation, This is pop culture history so it is not surprising the auction generated a lot of interest. Don't have a cow, man!

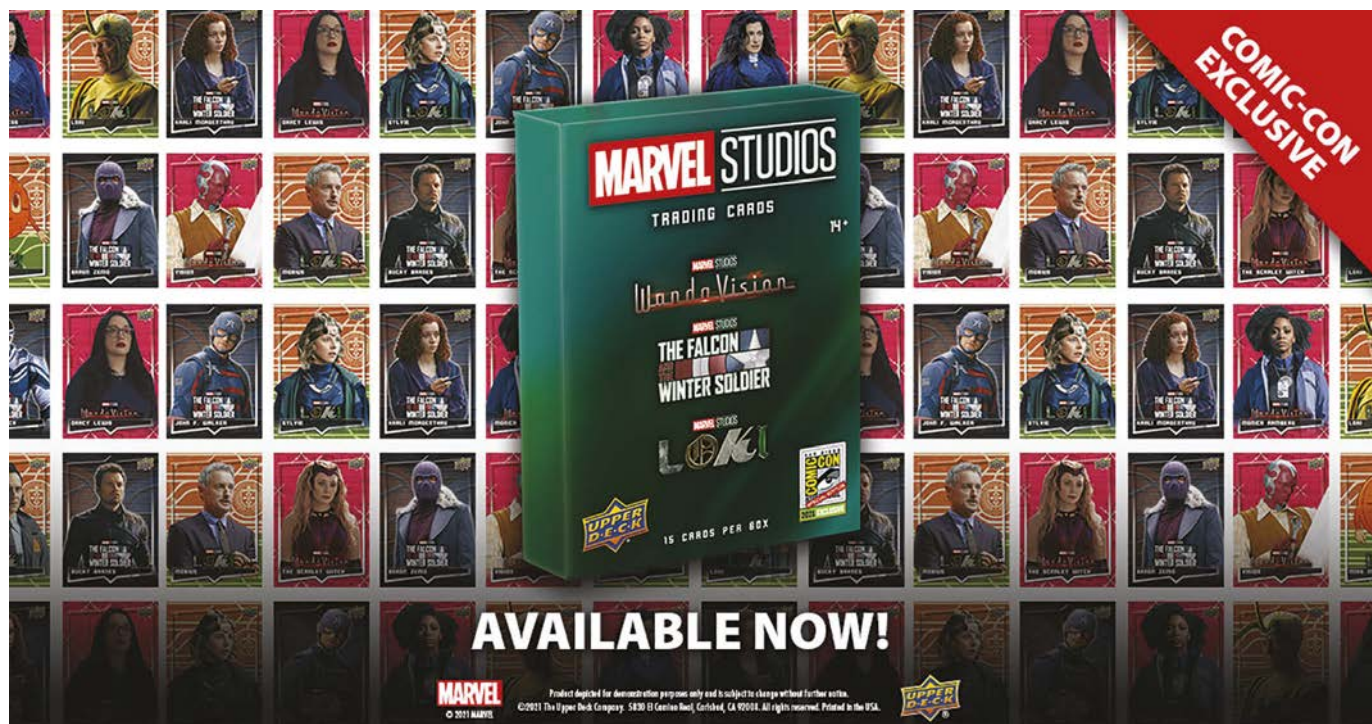

TOPPS UK RELEASES EXCLUSIVE GARBAGE PAIL KIDS FIGURINES

The British arm of Topps, Topps UK, has released an exclusive set of Garbage Pail Kids figurines, and each figurine comes with an exclusive Garbage Pail Kids sticker card. Each figure is a “purple parallel” decorated with purple clothing. Five figurines are available in total—Creepy Terry, Rod Wad, Drillin’ Dylan, Acne Amy, and Geeky Gary. These are similar to the Trashy Treasures Series 4 released in the U.S., but with the purple parallel twist. Each comes in an attractive purple custom box. Collect them all!

UPPER DECK PRODUCES MARVEL STUDIOS SET FOR SAN DIEGO COMIC-CON SPECIAL EDITION

The San Diego Comic-Con had been on hiatus in 2020 and 2021 due to the pandemic. A smaller Comic-Con Special Edition ran from November 26th through the 28th, and Upper Deck produced a set to commemorate popular Marvel Disney+ television shows WandaVision, The Falcon and the Winter Soldier, and Loki.

The set consists of fifteen cards, five for each show featuring the main characters, including The Scarlet Witch, Vision, Agatha Harkness, Captain America (formally the Falcon), Loki, Sylvie, and even Miss Minutes! The set comes in a smart deep green box with the show logos featured on the box front. A nice addition for card collectors who are fans of these shows.

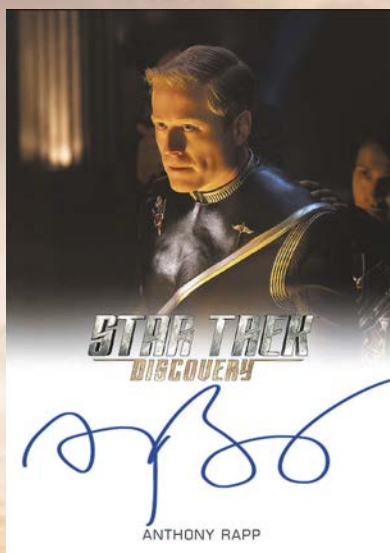

A TIME OF DISCOVERY

TIME MARCHES ON IN RITTENHOUSE'S SEASON 3 COLLECTION

BY ALAN BIEGEL

In season 3 of Paramount+'s Star Trek: Discovery, the starship's crew truly goes where no one has gone before—over 900 years into the future's future. In Trek terms that means landing in the year 3188, a period that left any potential continuity issues in the distant Trekian past. This clean slate gave writers the latitude to take the USS Discovery, and the whole Federation, in new and exciting directions.

President of Rittenhouse Archives, Steve Charendoff, has taken the journey with them by producing his third series of Discovery cards with Star Trek: Discovery Season 3 Trading Cards. "Discovery has been a fabulous part of the Star Trek mythology, combining elements of the classic series with its own original content. The storylines in season 2, in particular, with the [inclusion] of Spock and Captain Pike, were brilliant, and filled in a lot of the backstory for those characters in a way that left fans of TOS really satisfied. As a fan myself, I thought it was outstanding how we learned more about Spock, in particular, that added to his already amazing legacy. [With season 3] I was sad to see us leave the Spock/Pike storyline, but I was also glad to know that we'd be exploring new stories, in new settings that would offer something different than what we've seen before."

MORE GALORE

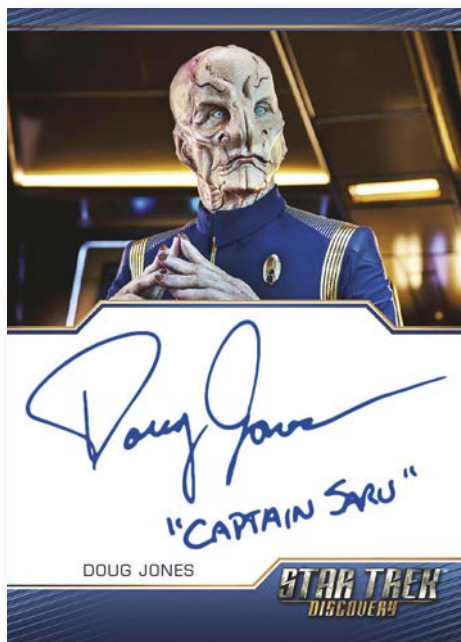

As for the season 3 cards themselves, Charendoff doesn't envision them being too stylistically different from previous, but he emphasized this new set will have more autographs from key cast members, with more relic cards, more dual autograph cards, more inscription autograph cards, more storyboards, and just more!

According to Charendoff, the base set will, as in past Discovery sets, retell the stories of each episode in six-card segments. There will be more character cards as the show has added new cast members. Also on deck are 32nd century tech cards, Kelpien-Ba'ul Book cards (with both Kelpien and English translation parallels) and new opening sequence expansion cards.

Autograph cards are always an important element of any Rittenhouse set and this product will be no exception. For Discovery 3 there will be autograph cards of nearly all of the key cast members, including Sonequa Martin-Green (character Michael Burnham), Doug Jones (Saru), Mary Wiseman (Sylvia Tilly), and new guest stars David Ajala (Cleveland 'Book' Booker), Oded Fehr (Charles Vance), Adil Hussain (Aditya Sahil), Janet Kidder (Osyraa), Jake Weber (Zareh), Ian Alexander (Gray Tal), and more.

"AUTOGRAPH CARDS ARE ALWAYS AN IMPORTANT ELEMENT OF ANY RITTENHOUSE SET AND THIS PRODUCT WILL BE NO EXCEPTION."

STAR TREK IS AN ENTERPRISE

What started as a simple network TV show in 1966 has blossomed into an unstoppable and ever-expanding juggernaut. With so many TV series and movies intertwined it's difficult to keep track of what happened when. On their website, Rolling Stone magazine recently plotted the entire Star Trek saga in timeline order allowing Trekkers to, as they say, "set phases to stream." Here's their listing in chronological order:

- Star Trek: Enterprise (2151-2161)
- Star Trek: Discovery Seasons 1 and 2 (2255-)
- Star Trek: Strange New Worlds (2255-) (Coming 2022 to Paramount+)
- Star Trek: The Original Series (2265-2269)
- Star Trek: The Animated Series (2269-2270)
- Star Trek: The Motion Picture (2273)
- Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan (2285)
- Star Trek III: The Search for Spock (2285)
- Star Trek IV: The Voyage Home (2286/1986)
- Star Trek V: The Final Frontier (2287)
- Star Trek VI: The Undiscovered Country (2293)
- Star Trek: The Next Generation (2364-2370)
- Star Trek: Deep Space Nine (2369-2375)
- Star Trek Generations (2371)
- Star Trek: Voyager (2371-2378)
- Star Trek: First Contact (2373/2063)
- Star Trek: Insurrection (2375)
- Star Trek: Nemesis (2379)
- Star Trek: Lower Decks (2380)
- Star Trek: Picard (2399-)
- Star Trek: Discovery Season 3 (3155?)
- Star Trek: Short Treks (2239-3300 Prime Timeline)

To avoid (too much) confusion, Rolling Stone added that the J.J. Abrams films are considered to be part of the Kelvin Timeline, an alternate reality timeline that branched off from the original due to a time travel incursion that occurred in those films. A cross between Prime and Kelvin universes in Star Trek: Discovery Season 3 keeps both time-lines canon.

- Star Trek (2258 Kelvin Timeline)
- Star Trek Into Darkness (2259 Kelvin Timeline)
- Star Trek Beyond (2263 Kelvin Timeline)

But wait, there's more! Coming soon (or just landed) to a Star Trek universe near you:

- Star Trek: Prodigy (Premiered October 28, 2021)
- Star Trek: Discovery Season 4 (Premiered November 18, 2021)
- Star Trek: Picard Season 2 (February 2022)
- Star Trek: Section 31 (Late 2022?)

Charendoff is particularly happy with this set's inscription autograph cards, "[There are] lots of [them], including those signed by Doug Jones, Mary Wiseman, Oded Fehr, Jake Weber, Sara Mitich (Lt. Nelsson), Emily Coutts (Lt. Keyla Detmer), et al. I particularly like the one written by Doug Jones, "I saw hope in the stars," which was one of his character's memorable lines as he pondered joining Starfleet."

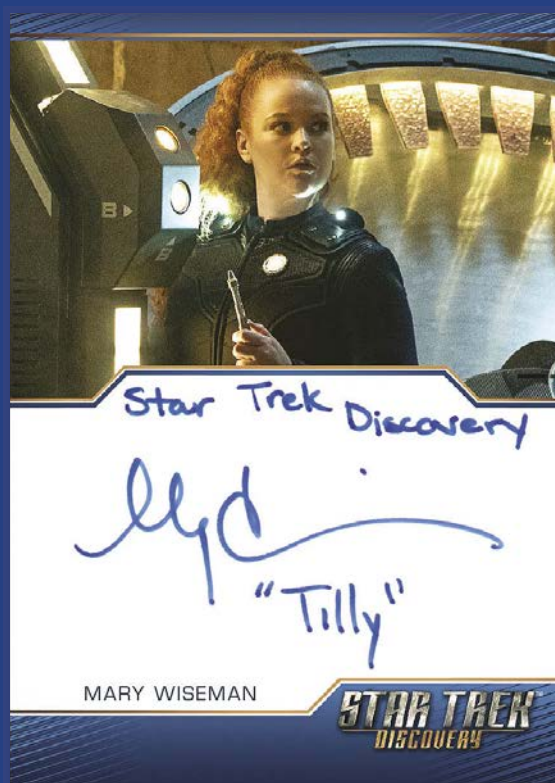

Rittenhouse will offer a number of exciting war wardrobe cards as part of the series, including ones for Burnham, Saru and Tilly. "I especially like the one of Mirror Universe Georgiou. Those costumes are very cool," said Charendoff.

While sketches, promos and archive box exclusives are still being worked on, two case toppers will be available featuring prominent characters Burnham & Book and Cul-ber & Stamets. The six-case incentive will be an Anthony Rapp—Mary Wiseman Dual Autograph Card while the nine-case will be a very special Sonequa Martin-Green—Doug Jones Dual Autograph Card. Archive Boxes will only be available as an 18-case incentive. An otherworldly album to house the collection will include an exclusive promo card. Look for product launch in late February/early March 2022.

POINT TOWARD REWARD

Rittenhouse Archives' Steve Charendoff feels that just selling cards to collectors isn't enough, he wants to reward them, too! Thus began the Rittenhouse Rewards Program. Collectors spy points on specially marked wrappers, save them and, when enough are accumulated, redeem them for unique card-related prizes. Choice examples are Star Trek 40th Anniversary Captain Picard Costume Card C33A, Game of Thrones Valyrian Steel Alternate Character Card 4 and Twin Peaks Scratch-n-Sniff SS10. For more information go to scifihobby.com and start amassing points.

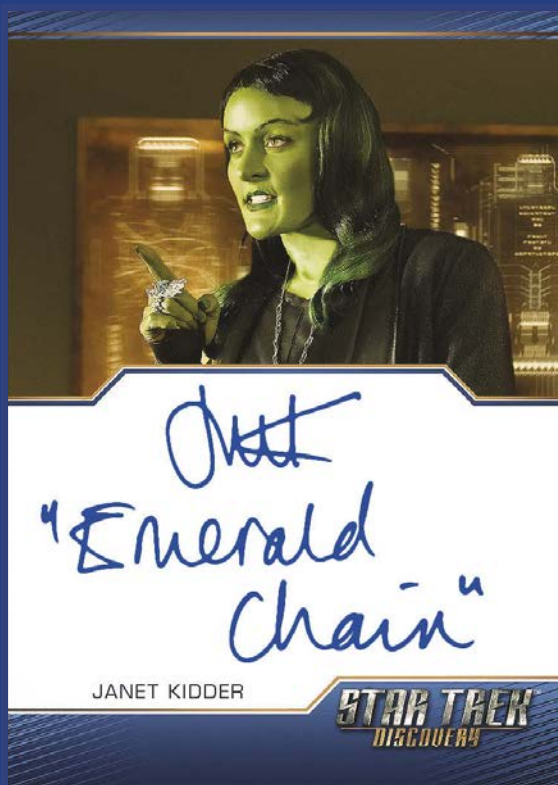

"AS A MAKER OF TRADING CARDS, IT'S EVEN MORE EXCITING, BECAUSE EACH SERIES OF CARDS CONTAINS NEW AND DIFFERENT ELEMENTS."

A STAR (TREK) IS BORN

When asked to sum up the success of the show and the new card series, Charendoff had this to say, "Discovery has quickly become a fan favorite. Now that the show is about to embark on its 4th season, we're really getting to know the characters very well and to appreciate them more and more. It always takes time for the bond between the fans and the characters to become more solid, and I think we're there now. But what's really outstanding is how each new season has taken the storylines and the characters in completely new directions. As a fan, that's really gratifying, and as a maker of the trading cards, it's even more exciting, because each series of cards contains new and different elements." When it comes to Star Trek, it seems there's always something new to discover. NSU

KEEP ON TREKKIN'

Star Trek's home base is now Paramount+. In addition to featuring past Trek series and movies, the streaming service has added a number of new Trek programs with plans to do more. NSU asked the Rittenhouse president if he thought it was a good thing or could it lead to oversaturation? Said Charendoff, "We lived through so many years when there were no spinoffs to this current era in which there seems to be a new spinoff or two every year. To me, I'm all for more Star Trek, as long as the writing is strong, the stories are compelling and the characters likable. That's a large part of what has made Star Trek so enduring for so many decades—it wasn't about crazy looking aliens and ships being blown up or space chases like you see in Star Wars and other science fiction shows and movies. Star Trek is far more thoughtful than that, bringing forward difficult social, political, environmental, medical issues, and more in a way that other dramas don't and can't do. That's what makes Star Trek so special."

CARDS COME ALIVE IN THE NEW YEAR

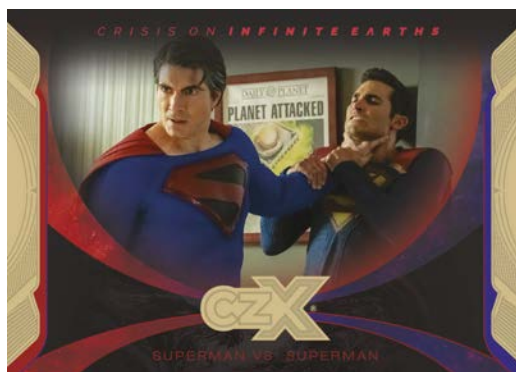

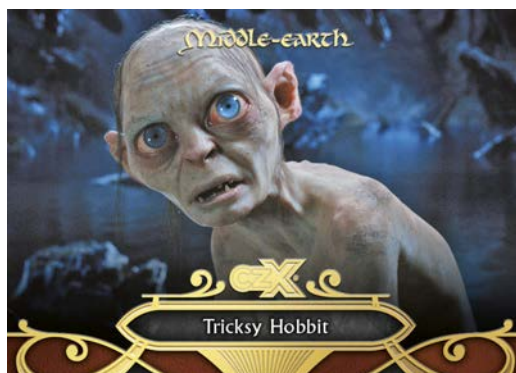

BY CHARLIE NOVINSKIE

Here's to a new year! While 2021 was a friend to no one, 2022 offers some hope for card manufacturers and collectors. In-person card shows are making a comeback, and thanks to Kickstarter projects, NFTs, and creative, all-in-one sets are all breathing new life into card manufacturers—both large and small. Variety being the spice of life, card creators are offering a cornucopia of product ranging from licensed projects of favorite shows and movies to retro collections and original concepts—here's to a 2022 to remember.

BENCH WARMER

Fans familiar with Bench Warmer projects won't be disappointed with the lineup for 2022. Look for the Best of Bench Warmer—Premium Product featuring over two hundred different Bench Warmer models. Following up with their popular series of cards will be two additional sets, Bench Warmer Emerald Archive and Bench Warmer Girls of Summer. For those politically minded, there will also be a set titled Decision 2022, covering the upcoming 2022 midterm elections.

CRYPTOZOIC ENTERTAINMENT

CZX Crisis on Infinite Earths will ship during the first quarter. Also scheduled: CZX Middle-earth and Outlander Season 5. More details as they become available.

FASCINATING CARDS

Eric Paulson notes that he has been laser focused on the company's U.S. National Parks set. "I haven't had time to put together any details for other sets," he confirmed. "I will almost certainly be releasing one or two sets after the National Parks, but I don't have enough details on those yet to pass on. The good news is that as you read this, the National Park cards should be available for purchase. Each box has eighteen packs with ten cards per pack. The complete set contains 252 cards."

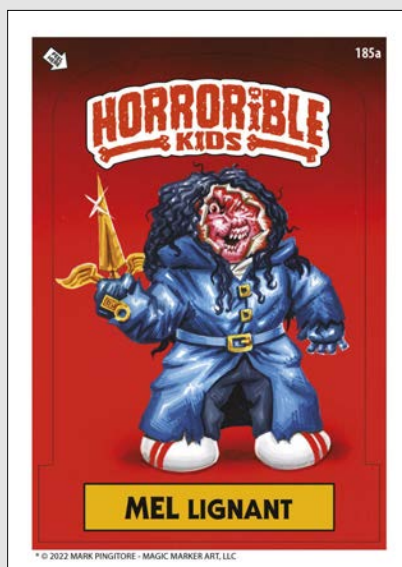

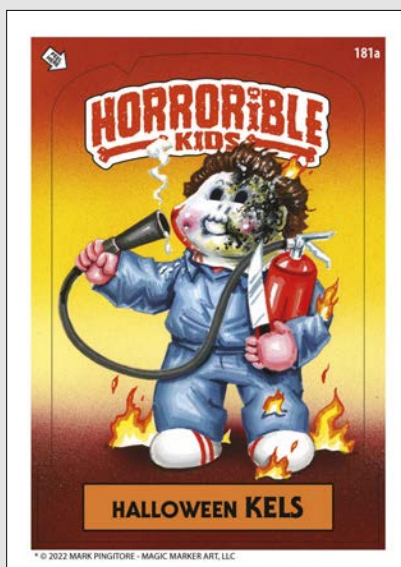

SFINITY

While details were not provided by the company, the following sets have been tentatively announced for 2022: Bill Maus Presents Cyberangels Sketch Card Series, Ben Dunn's Crimson Nun and Lady Death vs Hellwitch Sketch Card Series.

FRIGHT RAGS

Planned as a summer release, the 40th Anniversary of Creepshow is currently the only set planned for release from Fright Rags. More details as they become available.

MAGIC MARKER ART

G.I. Jokes now has a February 2022 release date, moved from December 2021. Two more sets are planned for 2022, but release dates are tentative. Slop Culture Kids—Series 1 and Horrible Kids—Series 7 will each contain 90-card base sets with printing plates, foil cards and other inserts to be named later. Slop Culture Kids and Horrible Kids will be the two main focuses going forward. SCK will be a general pop culture parody series that can draw inspiration from a wide range of genres in music, television, movies, toys, and more.

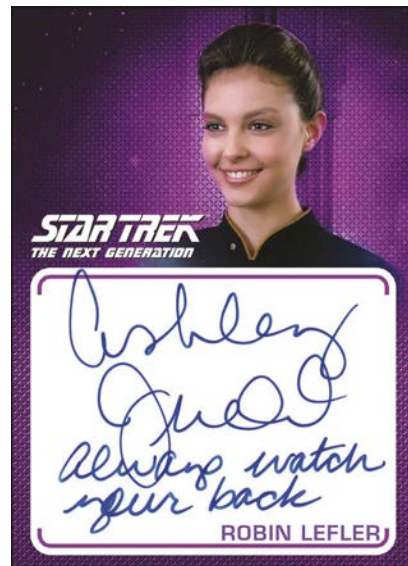

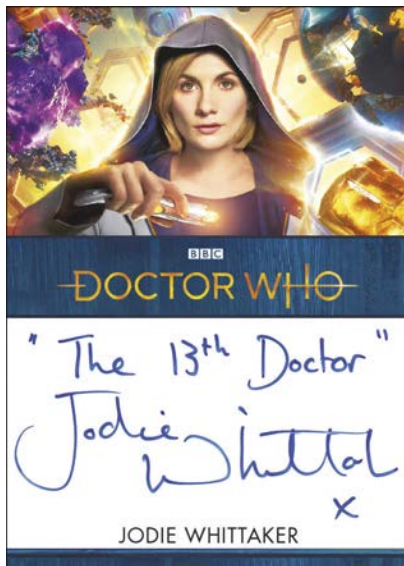

RITTENHOUSE ARCHIVES

Steve Charendoff has a full slate scheduled for 2022, starting with Star Trek: Discovery Season 3 Trading Cards scheduled for February/March 2022. See article elsewhere in this issue for details.

Whovians can look forward to Doctor Who Series 11 and 12 Trading Cards this March/April with autographs of nearly all the key and guest stars, including the Thirteenth Doctor herself, Jodie Whittaker. Other signers include Mandip Gill (Yaz), Tosin Cole (Ryan), Sacha Dhawan (The Master), Jo Martin (Fugitive Doctor), Chris Noth (Jack Robertson), Alan Cumming (King James), Patrick O'Kane (The Lone Cyberman), along with dozens more.

The second quarter of the year will also be busy with the following releases:

- The Complete Lost In Space (Netflix) Trading Cards. May/June
- The Umbrella Academy (Netflix) Season Two Trading Cards—May/June, featuring autographs of key stars and guest stars, auto/relic cards, dual autographs and more.
- Star Trek: The Next Generation Archives and Inscriptions Trading Cards—June/July. Plenty of inscription autographs from all the key and guest stars, including Marina Sirtis, Brent Spiner, Jonathan Frakes, Gates McFadden, Denise Crosby, John De Lancie, Jennifer Hetrick, Eric Menyuk, Ashley Judd, Michelle Forbes, Daniel Davis, and many more. Variable data base set with nine to 18 different variations per character.

The year will wrap up with a number of key card sets, including:

- The Game of Thrones Archives Trading Cards in October/November and will include dual autograph cards signed on card by Emilia Clarke and Kit Harington, as well as the first trading cards of the HBO prequel series, House of the Dragon.
- Doctor Who: The Flux Trading Cards—December. This Special Edition card series will focus on the climactic adventures featuring the Thirteenth Doctor.
- Twilight Zone 2022 Archives and Twin Peaks 2022 Special Edition Trading Cards are also on the schedule with release dates still to be determined.

PERNA STUDIOS

Exciting news as Tony and Elaine celebrate Perna Studios 10th anniversary in 2022. Currently in the works is their Elementals 2 card set, which is a sequel to their first Elementals set featuring characters that use the powers of Earth, Air, Water or Fire or are made of the specific element. The set will be available in late May or early June and will contain twenty base sets.

They will also have promo cards, pearl finish chase and metal chase cards for this set. They are also hoping to include metal sketch cards.

Perna Studios is also planning to release a Hallow-Ink 2 set this October.

RJF IMAGE/DESIGN

While details are still being worked out, four card sets are planned, one for each quarter:

- First quarter: Drive-In Double Feature Series 3, Sasquatch
- Second quarter: Avant-Garde Cinema Series 1: Vampyr
- Third quarter: Grindhouse Series 1: Turkish Star Wars
- Fourth quarter: Nosferatu Series 2. This set will be produced in conjunction with RRParksCARDS and Attic Cards.

ROBERT JIMENEZ

Two releases are planned for 2022, both via Kickstarter campaigns. Both were promo'd in the last set of Fearsome Weirdos: Harvest Of Horrors. The first will be Startling Lineup, which will be a parody of baseball players and baseball related products. The second will be the third Fearsome Weirdos set, Kaiju Creeps, which parodies Kaijus and will also include a few product parodies along with some Movie Poster Parodies. Plans call for each set to consist of thirty-six cards. Look for metal cards and stickers as part of the set, and the Kickstarter will feature sketch cards as well as original art. Startling Lineup should launch around Jan/Feb and Fearsome Weirdos: Kaiju Creeps should launch late summer.

UPPER DECK

Look for 2022 Upper Deck Marvel Spider-Man Into The Spider-Verse soon and Marvel Annual during Quarter One of this year.

MONSTERWAX

The next release from Monsterwax will be Monsters From Hell Series 2, part of a Kickstarter campaign that should be currently up and running. It features more incredible paintings by Oblix Hell Art, and the mind-bending conclusion to this paradoxical pandemic. The set is scheduled to have eighty images in the base set. There are also very cool Flexi (flashing) lenticulars and an amazing three-dimensional lenticular. Production will be limited to only five hundred numbered boxes made.

RRPARKSCARDS

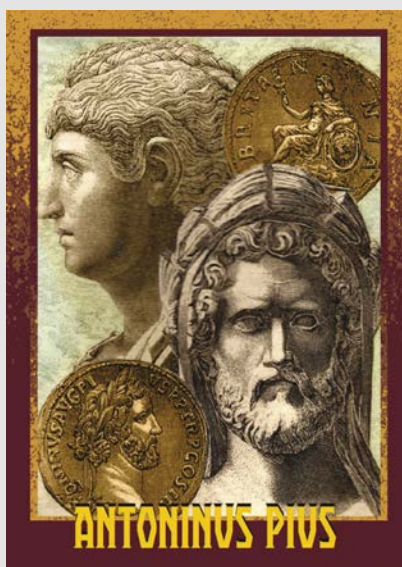

First half of 2022 will be a busy one with the following card releases planned:

- History of the Roman Emperors Series One. This focuses on Julius Caesar and the first twenty actual emperors. The base set is twenty-one cards (JC and the first twenty emperors), a subset focusing on women connected to the emperors, a subset of artwork, 3D lenticular card, original art sketch cards, and three different 'genuine relic' relic cards.
- Ultraman Series Two covers Ultra Seven and Return of Ultraman and will feature lots of fun stuff. See article elsewhere in this issue.
- Manos Series Two: Manos Returns. In the early stages of production, cards will include a base set, costume relic cards, sketch cards, and 3D cards.

The second half of the year will be just as busy with the release of Ultraman Series Three. Similar in content to Series One and Two, the set focuses on the next two incarnations of the TV show.

Also scheduled:

- Ninth Annual RRParksCARDS Halloween Event. The usual lineup includes Halloween Trick or Treat Series 10, Monster Choke 'n Gag Series 9 and Quartermass and the Pit Series 5. Plans also include traditional classic/vintage reprint series, including DareDevils, a lovely card series from long, long ago that's ludicrously expensive as originals. DareDevils is similar to Strange True Stories included in last year's set. The series will also involve original art sketch cards. Also on hand will be a very ambitious Halloween card series being worked out with a Halloween artist.

On a side note, RRParksCARDS will be publishing its first comic book during 2022. Until the artist has the book penciled, Parks is not breathing word one about the details.

Finally, and in the very early stages, is a card series simply called Series Five, a followup to the oddly named Series Four from last year. The only collectors who know what Series Five implies are the Mystery Science Theater 3000 crowd. Look for a third quarter release.

TOPPS

While a few projects remain in development, Topps fans can count on their fixes for both Star Wars and Garbage Pail Kids. Here's what's known so far:

- 2022 Star Wars Signature Series—Q1: Each Star Wars Signature Series box contains one slabbed autograph from over one hundred unique signers from across the franchise.

T. BREYER UNIQUE

Thomas Breyer notes he has plans for 2022, but that it is too early to talk about them. Non-Sport Update will be sure to announce any new sets as details become available.

UNSTOPPABLE CARDS

While details are still being worked out, anticipate the following sets for 2022: Terrahawks, The Avengers Series 3 and Highlander Movie 40th Anniversary.

One set that should be readily available now is Hammer Horror Series ONE—The Classics. The set includes autograph cards as well as sketch cards plus Hammer Glamour Red Foil and Hammer Beyond Horror Holo Foil chase cards.

While COVID-19 may have taken its toll and slowed down production at some companies, there's enough good product confirmed to make any non-sport collector more than happy. NSU

TOP 10

CHRISTOPHER WALKEN CARDS

BY RYAN CRACKNELL

According to author Malcolm Gladwell, it takes 10,000 hours to become an expert at something. With an acting career now in its eighth decade, it's safe to say that Christopher Walken has made it. Whether it's his Academy Award-winning performance in The Deer Hunter, dancing and flying through hotel lobbies in Fatboy Slim music videos or demanding more cowbell from Will Ferrell live from New York on a Saturday night, Walken has proven his range.

With almost 150 acting credits on his resumé, some of those roles have resulted in trading cards. Not a lot (and no certified autographs outside of cut signatures), but enough to warrant a deeper dive.

10. 1992 TOPPS STADIUM CLUB BATMAN RETURNS #20

There's a lot to take in here. One could go with the premium (for the time) full-bleed, glossy take using Topps' premium line. The combination of Michael Keaton's Bruce Wayne and Walken's Max Shreck together is also notable. But what really makes this one memorable? The hat on top of Walken's head. It looks like he stole it from Johnny Carson and Carnac the Magnificent.

9. 2008 RITTENHOUSE JAMES BOND IN MOTION #42 A VIEW TO A KILL

Sure, this is just a base card but that shouldn't take away from it. It's lenticular, after all, bringing Max Zorin to life—even if he is taking some in the process with his Uzi.

8. 2019 UPPER DECK JAMES BOND COLLECTION BOND LEGACY #BL-23 MAX ZORIN

Coming from Upper Deck's first set of James Bond trading cards, the standout feature on this insert is the manufactured cel piece that Walken's image is printed on. Bond Legacy inserts are available in three tiers, each with varying rarity. This is one of 25 from Tier 1, which is the easiest, combining to fall 1:20 packs.

7. 2004 RITTENHOUSE QUOTABLE JAMES BOND BOND VILLAINS #F14 MAX ZORIN

Sometimes, the simplest concepts make for stunning cards. Here it's a simple black and white portrait and a couple of gold accents. Going strictly by looks, this is one of the most attractive Christopher Walken cards. Bond Villains inserts are 1:14 packs.

6. 1999 INKWORKS SLEEPY HOLLOW HEADS WILL ROLL #CC9 CHRISTOPHER WALKEN AS THE HESSIAN HORSEMAN

Batman Returns isn't the only Tim Burton film that Walken appeared in to get the trading card treatment. There's also 1999 Inkworks Sleepy Hollow. Like leads Johnny Depp and Christina Ricci, Walken didn't sign for the set. He does, however, appear on this foil insert that's downright creepy. If it's too much to look at, the back provides a nice bio that highlights some of legend's notable acting credits.

4. 2014 RITTENHOUSE JAMES BOND ARCHIVES RELICS #JBR33 MAX ZORIN /400

It might not be a big piece of a jacket worn by Christopher Walken, but it's better than nothing. Numbered to 400, it's among the most plentiful Relics in 2014 James Bond Archives. However, it's one of the few to have a costume piece. Most featured prop pieces are from a variety of vehicles.

2. 2007 RITTENHOUSE COMPLETE JAMES BOND RELICS #RC9 ZORIN INDUSTRIES PATCH

The swatch on this one might not come directly from one of Walken's costumes in A View to a Kill, but the massive patch piece makes for an incredibly attractive memorabilia card. Although it's relatively tough to find today, according to Rittenhouse's rarity scale, it's one of the more common cards in the set.

5. 2021 UPPER DECK JAMES BOND VILLAINS AND HENCHMEN OBSDIAN #51 MAX ZORIN

If you're looking for a rare Christopher Walken card, this might be one of the toughest. Although not serial numbered, one look at the odds confirms that it's not easy to come by. Obsidian parallels are 1:480 packs of 2021 Upper Deck James Bond Villains and Henchmen. Run the numbers with a 100-card checklist and it takes about 48,000 packs to land one. It likely means that only a handful of copies exist.

3. 2002 RITTENHOUSE JAMES BOND 40TH ANNIVERSARY FROM THE ARCHIVES RELICS #CC2 MAX ZORIN

This is one of the first James Bond memorabilia cards, period. 2002 Rittenhouse James Bond 40th Anniversary introduced the franchise to the costume card concept with three cards. Pieces worn by Sean Connery and Patrick Macnee are also on the checklist. Although the odds sound relatively tough at 1:120 packs, with so few cards it's not overly scarce today.

1. 1953 BOWMAN TELEVISION AND RADIO STARS OF NBC #58 RONNIE WALKEN

The Christopher Walken "Rookie Card" goes all the way back to the earliest days in his career when he went by "Ronnie." Here he is as a 10-year old who, according to the card back, loves baseball and has his own science lab. The card arrived with Walken fresh off his first television credit on "The Wonderful John Acton." With the name change, this one might slip past some. But one look at that face and there's no doubt (the Internet Movie Database removes all doubt, too). NSU

REACH for the STARS

SOME STARS WENT DARK IN THIS STAR STUDDED SET FROM TOPPS

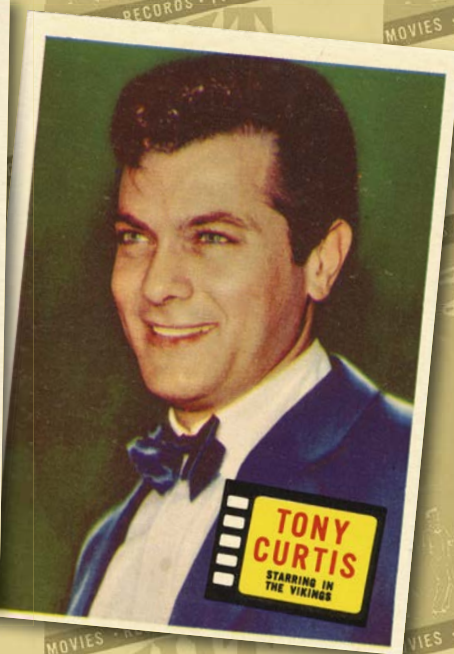

BY ARNOLD BAILEY

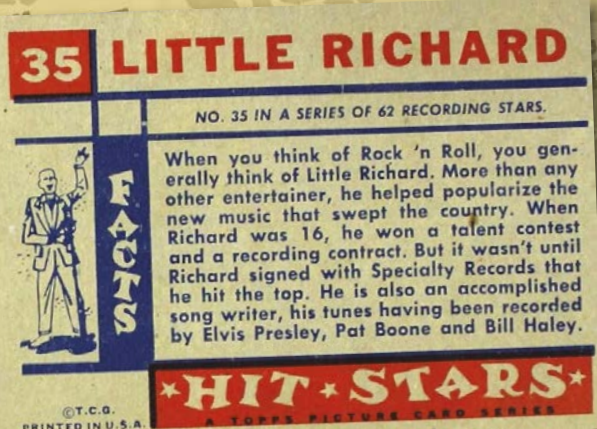

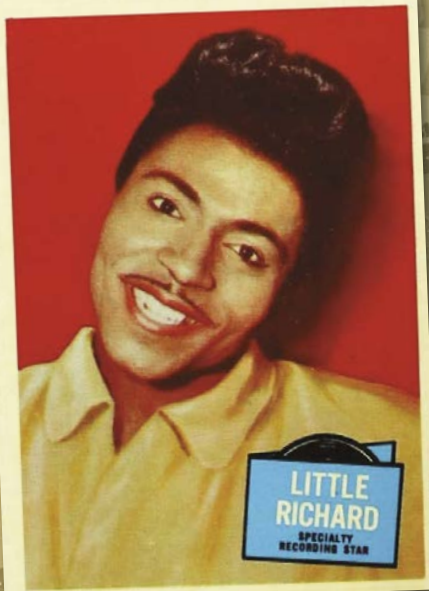

BOB HOPE

PARIS HOLIDAY

DEBBIE REYNOLDS
AN MGM STAR

TONY CURTIS
STARRING IN THE VIKINGS

The Hit Stars card set Topps produced in 1957 is interesting to collectors not just for which entertainers are in it but also for who's not. That's because the card company promised a series of 98 cards (62 recording stars and 37 movie and TV stars) but the set is complete at just 88. That's 11 fewer than planned and promised.

The mystery deepens in that one of the entertainers is pictured on four cards, and six others are portrayed on two each. That's an additional nine cards that could have pictured other stars. Add those nine to the original missing 11 and you've got a 20-card mystery on your hands.

Hit Stars does include many of the great entertainers of the 1950s, from the movies, television and music. Any set of cards that has Elizabeth Taylor, Elvis Presley, Bob Hope, Kirk Douglas, Grace Kelly, Jerry Lewis, Sammy Davis Jr., Tony Bennett, Little Richard, Fats Domino, The McGuire Sisters, James Dean, and so many others deserves the "Hit Stars" label. But you can't help but wonder who else was to be included and why are they missing.

THE GIANT CARD

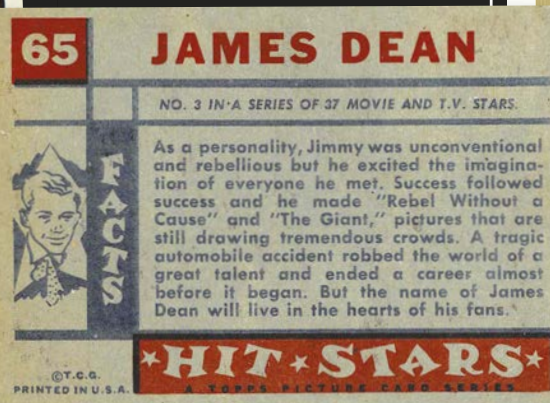

Though he died so young at only 25, James Dean was a tremendously popular actor, especially among teen girls. So, whatever motivated Topps to picture him on four cards in its 1957 Hit Stars set turned into a stroke of genius.

The first Dean card is number 63 and it describes the actor's life as one mixed with fame and despair. The second, card 65, focuses on his roles in Rebel Without A Cause and Giant, and mentions the tragic auto accident that took his life. The third card, number 66, tells how veteran actor James Whitmore early on suggested a stage career for Dean. And the fourth, card 71, recalls how active Dean had been in high school, especially in sports. Each card has a different photo of the young actor. Note: The card back incorrectly lists Dean's movie as "The Giant."

In planning its own Topps 75th Anniversary card set, the company chose to focus on Dean again as a symbol of its Hit Stars set, picturing him on card number 15 in its historical review. For added emphasis, it recycled the same photo of Dean used 56 years earlier in the vintage set as card number 66.

STAR SEARCH

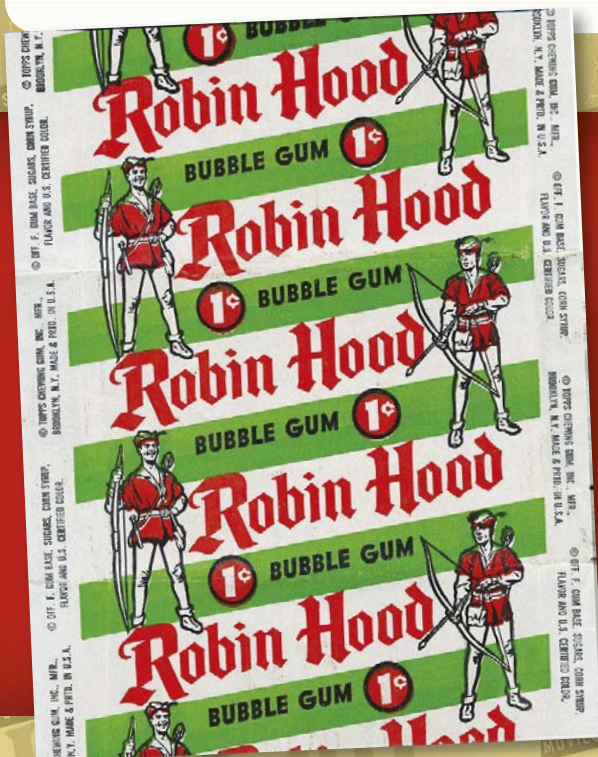

The “why” likely was about money, especially licensing fees. Or Topps may have been stymied by exclusive contracts between entertainers and other card companies. The “who” roster could have included movie stars like Marlon Brando, Humphrey Bogart, Bing Crosby, Judy Garland, and Kathryn Hepburn. From TV there might have been Ed Sullivan, James Arness, Alfred Hitchcock, Groucho Marx, Arthur Godfrey, and Lucille Ball. Musical stars might have included Patty Page, Bill Haley and the Comets, Teresa Brewer, Pat Boone, Johnny Cash, The Kingston Trio, and Ella Fitzgerald. And the talents of stars like Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin cross several categories. Take that list of 20 and add it to the Hit Stars checklist and you’ve got true star power.

Topps honored James Dean with four cards in the set. Whether the original plan was to feature the young screen heartthrob to attract young girls (as was the case with Bowman’s 1948 Movie Stars set) or did it serve as a kind of fill-in honor isn’t known.

Stars pictured on two cards each were Debbie Reynolds, Jerry Lewis, Sal Mineo, Tony Curtis, Frankie Laine, and Guy Mitchell. Four of the six are honored for their talents in two of the three categories but the other two are noted for their stardom in just one. So, why did they rate two cards each?

Topps liked a little mystery in its card sets. Its 80-card 1953 Who-Z-At Star? set offered several clues and a 44-card 1967 Who Am I? series hid stars behind scratch-off disguises. Would something like Who Are The Missing Stars? have been appropriate to rename Hit Stars?

TOPPS EXTRA BUSY IN 1957

The printing presses at Topps were working overtime in 1957 to take advantage of the virtual monopoly the company enjoyed after purchasing Bowman, its chief competitor, a year earlier.

Joining the six non-sport sets produced by the gum company that year was an extensive array of sports cards. They include Baseball (a 407-card set), Pro Football (154 cards), Hockey (back after a three-year hiatus with a 66-card set) and Pro Basketball (Topps’ first-ever hoops set with 80 cards).

Joining Hit Stars on the non-sport market were Space cards (set of 88), Robin Hood (60), Planes (120), Isolation Booth (88), and Goofy Series Post Cards (60).

HIT OR MISS

The set's 88 cards are standard size with each star's image (most are studio PR stills) dominating the fronts framed by a thin white border. The star's name is in a small box resembling a film strip, a TV screen or a record sleeve indicating the star's special area of talent.

The backs contain the card number (with the promises of more stars to come), brief bios labeled FACTS and generic cartoon images of teens dancing, singing, listening to records or playing a musical instrument. All backs are horizontal in design while only five of the fronts have that design format.

There are three cards with errors. Card 5 pictures Jimmy Bowen but his name is misspelled as Bowan on the card front. Card 13 of Chris Conner has her name misspelled as Connor on the front. And Screamin' Jay Hawkins is identified only as Screamin' Jay with last name omitted on the front of his card number 19.

None of the cards are scarce, but the big stars carry a premium as high as three times a common's price tag. Collectors especially like the Buddy Holly number 51 card picturing him with the Crickets, plus the cards of Elizabeth Taylor and Bob Hope. As usual, condition is a key in assigning values and centering can be a problem with this set, so finding perfect specimens is a challenge.

Price guides (including Non-Sport Update's) value a full set in mint condition at about $1,350 with single cards in the $5 to $15 range.

Highest price paid for a full set is $6,578 for the then number three ranked set on the PSA Register during a Robert Edwards auction in 2012. Goldin auctioned a set for $1,964 in the spring of 2020, then another for $3,600 in the winter of that year.

The 1¢ and especially the 5¢ wrapper are scarce and valued in the $40 to $90 range, though their design is nothing special despite all the red and yellow colors. Leland's sold an unopened 1¢ pack for $398.40 in 2019 and earlier an empty counter display box for $854.40. Makes one wonder again what Hit Stars would have been worth if those additional 20 top stars had been added. NSU

CARDBOARD HARMONY

Musical vocal groups were all the rage in the late 1950s and Topps featured 16 in its 88-card Hit Stars set. They ranged from duets (Mickey & Sylvia on card 2), to quintets (The Clovers on card 5, The Drifters on 14, The Teenagers on 18, The Bobbettes on 23, The Cletones on 42, The Del Vikings on 58, and The Platters on 60. In between there was The McGuire Sisters trio on card 48 and quartets led by The Coasters on number 4, The Four Aces on 15, The Diamonds on 22, The Four Lads on 26, The Crew Cuts on 41, The Crickets on 51, and The Chordettes on 52.

Collectors can find even more singing groups in two contemporary entertainment-oriented card sets. Fleer included 25 musical groups in its 1959 Spins and Needles 80-card series, while Nu Cards had 20 vocal groups in its exhibit-sized 64-card Rock & Roll set in 1959.

Among the most popular vocal groups Topps didn't include were The Everly Brothers, The Flamingos, The Four Freshmen and The Duprees.

UBER ULTRA

MAKING THE IMPOSSIBLE POSSIBLE AGAIN—
ULTRAMAN RETURNS TO TRADING CARDS

BY RUDY PANUCCI

After the huge success of Ultraman Series One on Kickstarter, RRParksCARDS will return to the crowdfunding platform very early in 2022 with a campaign to fund Ultraman Series Two. Ultraman Series One was the first English-language card set devoted to the cult property and collectors went crazy for the massive set.

Speaking of crazy, Richard Parks, the man behind RRParksCARDS, has been working on creating all the goodies for Ultraman Series Two while he's been assembling, collating and shipping Ultraman Series One, and simultaneously safely ushering several other crowd-funded card sets through various stages of completion. No one has any idea when he sleeps.

KAIJU PREVIEW

The base cards for the second series will focus on UltraSeven and Return of Ultraman (the two seasons of the TV show that came out after UltraQ and Ultraman, in 1965 and 1966 respectively). The base set and first subset for Series Two will be similar to Series One in that each episode will be featured on a card and every Kaiju will be represented in a subset. The Kaiju Series, continues the subset from Ultraman Series One. This subset will feature every Kaiju from every episode of UltraSeven and Return of Ultraman.

The initial product is planned to have a pre-order venue through Kickstarter, just as they did with Ultraman Series One, with master sets available for a limited time during the pre-order phase of Series Two—on Kickstarter (perhaps as early as February 2022).

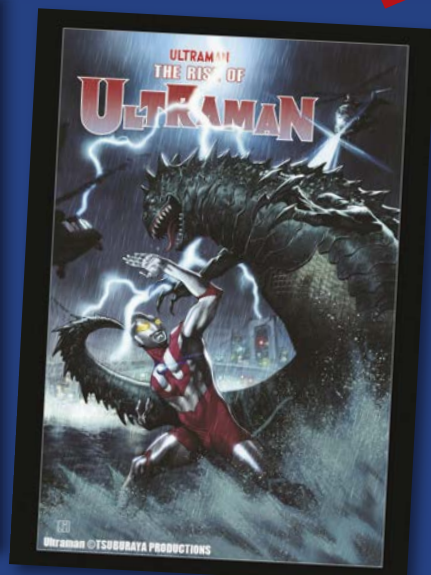

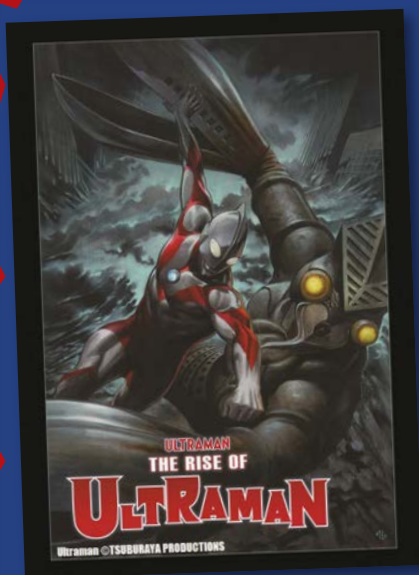

Parks explains, “I always like making master sets available at least for a limited time because a card series with 100s of different cards to collect is a bit tough, building one from packs (and then ludicrously expensive filling in holes/gaps through secondary markets like eBay). So a Master Set WILL be available during the Kickstarter...and ONLY during the Kickstarter. Collectors can follow the progress and updates in my Ultraman Trading Cards Facebook group (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/402585700714907>).”

Parks goes on to describe the Master Set Box, “And the box itself? Well, those who have collected my previous releases know that ‘nature abhors a vacuum’...

the box will contain a complete mini clipout card set formatted throughout the entire surface of the box (Karen Watt Cowan of ICONIX and I have designed the box with loads of surface space to fit LOADS of mini clip-out cards...Series One

A MARVELOUS ENDEAVOR

Richard Parks is beaming about another subset for Ultraman Series Two. He relates, “Also being worked into Ultraman Series Two is a 20+ subset of promo cards made possible by special arrangement between Tsuburaya and Marvel Comics—ALL of Marvel’s recent Ultraman comic book covers on trading cards! Since I’m a huge fan of the Marvel comic covers for Ultraman I’m also having the very talented Annie Chan create EACH comic cover as a lenticular 3D card for this second series.” This subset adds Marvel fans and lenticular card collectors into the mix for what is already a very collectible card set.

had about 36 mini clipout cards, full color both sides).”

For collectors who are also artists, one of the chase cards for the series will be a DIY official sketch blank. There are almost 150 sketch card artists working on the project as well as 3D designers and Macarie Claudiu and Elisabetta Stoinich (subset portrait artists from Ultraman Series One and many previous RRParksCARDS productions including MST3K, Psycho Ape, and The Three Stooges).

RRParksCARDS tells NSU they are planning special stickers, parallels/variations, sketchcard gallery subsets and metal cards, which are still being finalized at press time.

Richard Parks, the one-man-band of RRParksCARDS, promises even more, “We are currently working out an arrangement with Tsuburaya to get actors from UltraSeven and Return of Ultraman to do autograph cards. These will be very limited (like Series One’s autograph cards).”

Anaglyph 3D cards, designed by Christian LeBlanc (3D anaglyph designer for MST3K, Sharknado, Zorro, Three Stooges Series Nine and other RRParksCARDS productions), are going to happen...continuing the Ultraman Series One 3D anaglyph cards. Naturally, boxes will come with a free pair of 3D glasses.

Wrappers will once again double as checklists, as Parks explains, “Who really wants to MARK UP a checklist CARD, right? So I print the series’ checklist on the inside of the wrappers. Because a retail box has numerous packs and duplicate wrappers, collectors will hopefully feel less iffy about marking up a checklist wrapper that they will have multiples of anyway. At least, that’s the theory.”

ULTRABIG

As NSU goes to press, it looks like Ultraman Series Two’s configuration will be similar to Series One, with 36-pack boxes and Deluxe Pack tuck boxes and cases. For Series One, cases sold out within the first 10 days of pre-orders on Kickstarter. With all the exciting new subsets, Parks says to expect fewer variations and parallels as were seen in the first series. Ultraman Series One boasted over 270 cards among its base set and all the subsets and special inserts; Series Two may very well top that.

Ultraman Series Two will be huge, both literally and figuratively, which, considering the hero’s size, is only appropriate. NSU

A SKETCHY AND PUZZLING SUBSET

There’s a very cool story behind one of the new subsets in Ultraman Series Two. Richard Parks relays the details, “My fellow card publisher and friend Jeremy Faulkenburg at ATTIC CARDS commissioned sketch card artist maestro David Day to do the LARGEST sketch card puzzle EVER for the card series NILBOG (Troll 2)...and then Jeremy suggested I do an even larger one. I tend to listen to Jeremy—he’s the friend who encouraged me to get autograph cards for Ultraman Series One and he also got me started on including sketch cards in my productions. So for Ultraman Series Two I commissioned David Day to do a 45-piece sketch card puzzle, which he did and it is GLORIOUS!”

Before anyone has a chance to ask “But how on earth can a collector actually collect all 45 1/1 sketch cards?” Parks has a great answer, “I can respond with the fact that the 45-piece puzzle is also being published as a subset for Ultraman Series Two so everyone who collects the series can have all 45 pieces.” It’s a way fans can have their sketch cards and collect ‘em all, too.

TEAPHILE LINDSEY GREYLING HOPES TO BE COMIC CON BOUND

Lindsey Greyling is more than just a talented artist living in Doncaster, South Yorkshire. She's been a bass player in a band, has an obsession with drinking cups of tea, and volunteers as a kid's art tutor in her spare time. Lindsey is also a dedicated mom, whose son won an open exhibition at a gallery as a four years old. Art obviously runs in their family.

Non-Sport Update: Thank you for your time. How did you get started in your art career?

Lindsey Greyling: I sold sketch cards online back when I had a day job but it wasn't a serious effort. After my son was born, I returned to college and graduated from Doncaster College with a first class honours degree in Illustration and concept art. I set up a portrait business, and after a few years I emailed Topps with my portfolio. They sent me an invite and from there I applied to more companies and have been working in sketch cards ever since.

NSU: What was the first set you worked on?

LG: Topps Empire Strikes Back Black and White in 2019. I was over the moon that it was my first set as it is my favourite Star Wars film. This set took me six weeks to complete, but my skills and speed have improved so much over the last few years that I can now usually complete a full colour set in a week.

NSU: You draw in multiple styles, such as realism for Star Wars and "cute" for Perna Studios. Which do you prefer?

LG: It entirely depends upon my mood at the time. I've always been a jack of all trades. One of the reasons I love sketch cards is that I can experiment with different styles and materials. Realism helps my drawing and rendering skills. My stylized work, like my Peepers series, is an amalgamation of all that I've learned in the last few years and comes fairly naturally now. Sometimes I'm in the mood to create an illustrative card, other times I just want to copy a photograph.

NSU: You have drawn for big licenses and also for small press releases. What's the difference from the Artist's perspective?

LG: As an artist I find that the small releases give better pay, communication, longer deadlines and more artistic freedom. The larger licenses can help to put you in front of a larger audience and your artist returns can sell for quite a high price, but I'm finding my illustrative work is gaining just as much of a following and customer base as the licensed work I do.

NSU: When a license releases multiple sets, like Star Wars, how do you keep things fresh and exciting?

LG: I like to set myself a challenge on the multiple release sets. Sometimes it's with the expressions of the characters, so an "angry" or "happy" set. I also change my materials such as switching from pen and pencil to watercolour, or instead of full colour, experimenting with black and white/colour mixes. My next challenge is going to focus on unusual lighting as that's something I want to improve on.

NSU: Do you have a dream property, or favorite "universe" that you wish to draw sketch cards for?

LG: I do! And this is a terribly sad story. Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles has always been my favourite property. Topps released an Art of TMNT set, but I had only done one set for them at the time and didn't receive an invite. A few sets later I started getting invited to every Topps set. It's been my biggest disappointment since starting work in the industry.

NSU: Are you a full-time artist?

LG: Yes, I work as a full-time artist. Luckily my personal sketch cards sell well. I still draw the odd larger piece if requested as it's nice to be able to fit extra detail in but I'll always prefer cards. I'm hoping to get out to attend comic cons next year. In between the usual household duties and working, I also love music and have been practicing the drums the past few years.

NSU: What's next? Are there any upcoming projects you're allowed to share?

LG: I've decided to set up a card publishing company; I'm going to be starting small and see where it takes me. I will still be working on sets but not the amount I have over the past few years. I feel I've put the hard work in and it's time to see what's next!

NSU: How can people contact or follow you?

LG: People can find me through my Facebook page, Cartoon Cosplay. I will also be setting up a website for my new venture but up until now I haven't needed one. I love my work; honestly couldn't be happier! Long live sketch cards!

NSU: Thanks again, Lindsey. We look forward to your new projects, and would welcome a new card publishing company. If we ever bump into you at a comic con, I hope we can share a cup of tea. NSU

PRIME CUTS

THE STARS ALIGN FOR DONRUSS CELEBRITY CUTS

BY DON NORTON

In 2008, Donruss released Celebrity Cuts, a blockbuster set which featured some of the biggest personalities in film, television and sports. It was one of the first high-end non-sport products to hit the market, but its lineage can be traced back to the 1800s.

When cigarette cards were popular in the late 1800s, Actor and Actress sets were very common. Celebrities appeared on Dixie Cup Lids and postcard-sized Arcade cards starting in the 1930s. Since then, entertainment figures have appeared on trading cards such as Topps 1953 Who-Z-At Star and 1957 Hit Stars (see article this issue), but from the 1960s on, only a few music-related sets have been issued.

STAR STRUCK

In 2007 that changed with Donruss Americana, a celebrity focused set with entertainment, sports and political figures, featuring autographs and worn material. It was a huge success, and would lead to more Americana sets between 2008 and 2015, but 2008 Celebrity Cuts would surpass them all. 2008 was the 140th anniversary of the trading card (the first cigarette baseball issue appearing in 1868). To celebrate, Donruss issued this statement, "We present Americana Celebrity Cuts. Simply put, the industry has never, in its wildest dreams, envisioned anything like it. Officially, Celebrity Cuts is the sequel to our blockbuster release earlier this year of Americana." They added, "Celebrity Cuts takes the genre of entertainment and celebrity cards to an incomparable level." Big hype, but it was true.

Boxes sold for around $120 each, and there were so many variants and subsets that Jeff Allender estimates a master set would include 2,269 cards! Fans looking for a swatch of clothing or signature from a favorite celebrity might find this right up their alley.

BASE AND CHASE OF THE STARS

Donruss Celebrity Cuts came packaged in a sturdy, sealed box. Inside was an 18-page booklet, five cello wrapped cards (base, chase and a swatch card), and a hit in a sealed magnetic holder. The cards were printed on heavy 75-point stock, with foil trim, and every card was numbered. The 100 Base cards with silver foil were numbered to 499. Parallels were numbered to 50 and 25, with holo-foil trim and the word "Century" at bottom.

The base 100 included film stars such as Burt Reynolds and Carrie Fisher, television personalities like Ed Asner and William Shatner, sports icons like Willie Mays and Peggy Fleming, and famed figures such as George Bush and astronaut Buzz Aldrin.

Chase sets included Movie Stars and Hollywood Icons, numbered to 100. These included many from the base set, but also stars who are long gone, like Marlon Brando, Humphrey Bogart and Audrey Hepburn.

WHO ARE YOU?

Most readers will recognize the names featured in Celebrity Cuts, even going back to the 1940s and '50s. But there are a few stars that are far from household names, yet back in the day, they had real star power and certainly deserve a spot in this set.

Teresa Wright—(1918-2005) This actress had small roles in the 1980s and '90s, but throughout the 1940s she was a highly acclaimed star, with three Academy Award nominations, winning Best Supporting Actress for her role in Mrs. Miniver in 1942.

Clair Trevor—(1910-2000) Appeared in 68 films from 1933 to 1982, including Key Largo, for which she won Best Supporting Actress in 1948. She also had two other Academy Award nominations.

Warner Baxter—(1889-1951) This actor began in silent films, and starred in the first Great Gatsby film in 1926. In 1929 he made the talkie, In Old Arizona, in which he played The Cisco Kid, a role which won him an Academy Award for Best Actor.

Dolores Hart—(1938-) While she did not win an Oscar, this lovely actress' films include Where the Boys Are, Come Fly With Me, and two films with Elvis, Loving You and King Creole. While making the film, Francis of Assisi, she found a deep religious connection and in 1963 quit acting to become a Benedictine nun, devoting her life to service.

MATERIAL GIRLS—AND GUYS

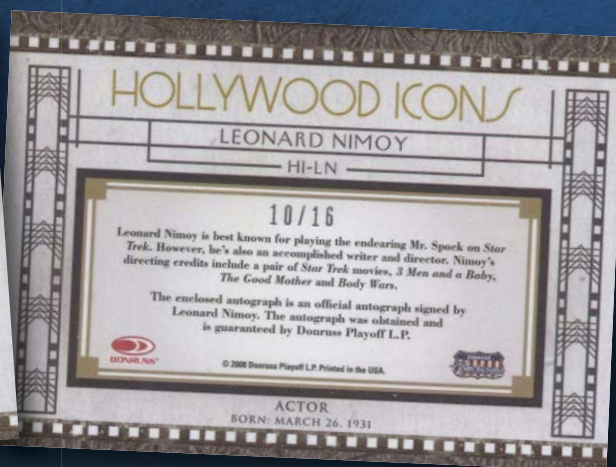

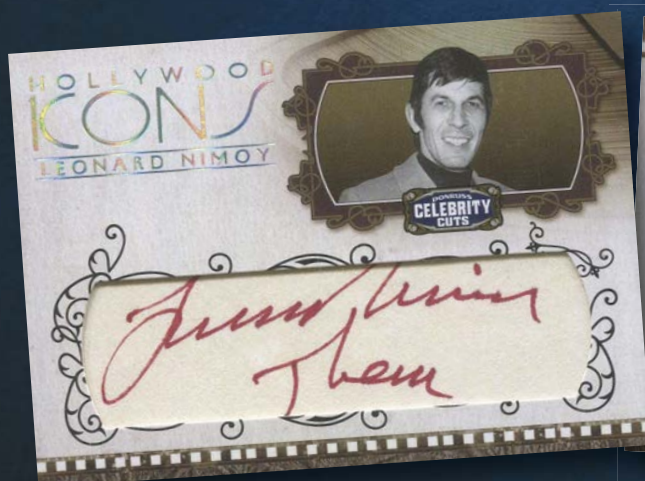

While costume cards were not new, they generally included swatches of clothing worn on camera. Celebrity Cuts features pieces of clothing from the celebrity's personal wardrobe. The base set, Movie Stars and Hollywood Icons, all come in a bewildering variety of material cards, with one, two, three, or four different materials per card. The base design will have a large single square or two smaller squares. Movie Stars can feature one or two square shapes, or a die-cut star. Hollywood Icons is most elaborate, with die-cut words across the lower section such as "Icon," "Hero," or a significant year for the star. A good example is 1961 for Shirley Jones, when she won an Oscar.

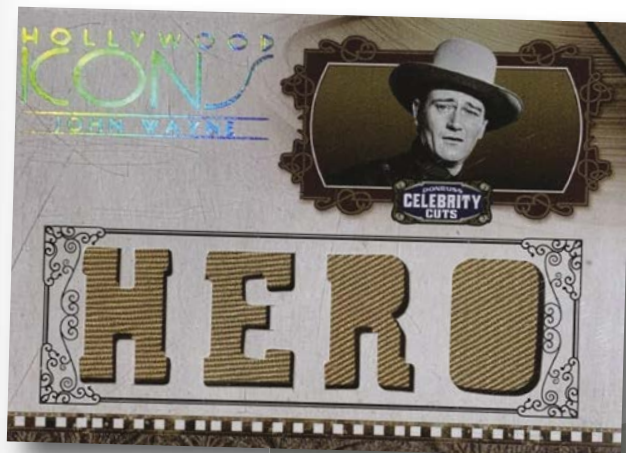

SIGN ON THE DOTTED LINE

The autographs are the real standout of Celebrity Cuts, with a plethora of styles. Most autos are stickers. First are the base card style Century autographs, also in single and dual Century Signature Materials, in various levels. Both Movie Stars and Hollywood Icons have Signature cards, again using stickers, often paired with materials.

Dual, Triple and Quad signatures are found on Stardom cards. Again, sticker autos are used to link actors who have appeared together. How cool would it be to have a card signed by all four of the Bundys from Married with Children? Or a Star Trek card with Kirk, Spock, Chekov, and Sulu?

On-card signatures are rare. Movie Star Cuts feature what may be among the earliest non-sport inscription autos.

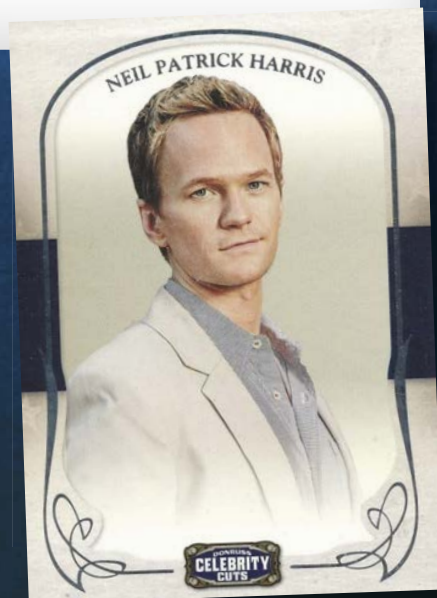

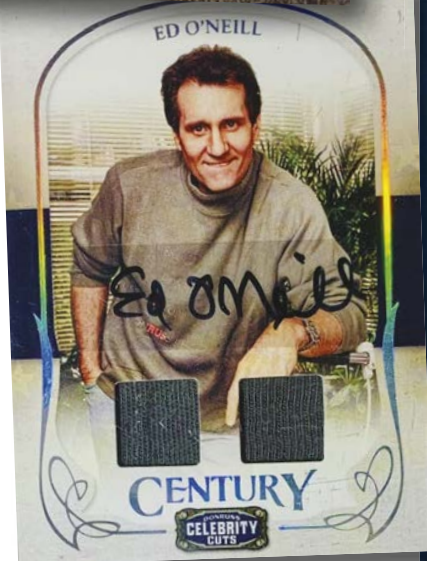

Celebrity Cuts are cut signatures from iconic names such as Frank Sinatra, John Wayne, and Grace Kelly, most numbered 1 of 1. Hollywood consists of twelve different stars signing cloth letters to spell out "Hollywood." Some of these have bled into the cloth over time. Finally there is the Recollection Collection, buyback cards from Leaf 1967 Star Trek, and Donruss Six Million Dollar Man and Dallas, among others, each signed on card by actors such as Leonard Nimoy, Lee Majors and Larry Hagman.

With some of the greatest names of show business and sports, Celebrity Cuts deserves much respect as it is a truly an amazing set. Check out Jeff Allender's House of Checklists online for a full list of all these cards; your favorite star may be in there! NSU

WHAT PRICE GLORY?

Pinning down a value for these cards is difficult. With so many variations, and so many stars being more desirable than others, prices are all over. Single base cards can go for $1 to $10 on eBay. A full base set can be found for $250.

Relics and autos are speculative. A William Shatner/Leonard Nimoy double autograph sold for $600 when these cards first came out; today this card could almost certainly reach $1,000. On eBay, as this is being written, a Hollywood Icons James Dean Materials, Die-cut 1955 numbered 13/25 is listed for $203. A Movie Stars Rob Schneider dual relic with auto is being offered for $180. As for graded cards, a Barbara Bush base style auto, numbered 11/25 with a Beckett grade of 9, is up for $1,000. Of course, these are asking prices; it is up to the buyer to decide what the value of the card is. What would the reader be willing to pay for a swatch of worn material or autograph from Marilyn Monroe, John Wayne, Audrey Hepburn, or Steve McQueen?

WHAT'S LISTED

Products listed in the Price Guide typically:

- Are produced by licensed manufacturers
- Are widely available
- Have market activity on single items

HOW IT'S LISTED

The sort order of the checklists are somewhat unique. All sets are listed 1) alphabetically then 2) chronologically. However, some exceptions have been made to further accommodate the reader. For instance, when it comes to recurring series, television seasons or film franchises and their sequels, all checklists will be grouped together in the same block. For example, if a reader was looking for sets devoted to James Bond or Harry Potter, they would find all sets devoted to these franchises in the same block. They would be listed chronologically while still adhering to the alphabetization of the entire section.

WHAT THE COLUMNS MEAN

The LO and HI columns reflect current retail selling ranges. The HI column on the right generally represents the full retail selling price. The LO column on the left generally represents the lowest price one would expect to find with extensive shopping.

MULTIPLIERS

Parallel sets and lightly traded insert sets are listed with multipliers to provide values of unlisted cards. Multiplier ranges (i.e. 20X to 40X) apply only to the HI column. Example: If base card A lists for 20 to 50 cents, and the multiplier is "20X to 40X," then the parallel version of card A or the insert card in question is valued at $10 to $20.

PRICING PREMIUMS

Some cards can trade at premium price levels compared to values listed in this issue. Those include but are not limited to: cards that became hot since this issue went to press, fan favorites (such as Harrison Ford) who may be in high demand, and memorabilia cards with unusually dramatic swatches, props, or patches.

STATED ODDS AND PRINT RUNS

Odds of pulling inserts are listed as a ratio (1:12 = 1 in 12 packs). If the odds vary by pack type, they are listed separately. Stated odds are provided by the manufacturer based on the entire print run and should not be viewed as a guarantee by neither Beckett Media nor the manufacturer.

GRADING

All cards in the price guide are based on NrMint to Mint condition. Damaged cards are generally sold for 25 to 75 percent of Mint value.

CURRENCY

This price guide is intended to reflect the entire North American market. While not all of the cards are produced in the United States, they will reflect the market value in U.S. dollars.

ONLY A REFERENCE

The data and pricing information contained within this publication is intended for reference only and is not to be used as an endorsement of any specific product(s) or as a recommendation to buy or sell any product(s). Beckett's goal is to provide the most accurate and verifiable information in the industry. However, Beckett cannot guarantee the accuracy of all data published. Typographical errors occasionally occur and unverifiable information may reach print from time to time. UPDATES

It is a Marvel and Star Wars world and we are fortunate enough to live in it.

To close out 2021, Star Wars took 4 out of the top 5 spots on the product hot list. Despite no major films or live-action TV series airing, a galaxy far far away still remained one of the best sellers in the hobby.

Hailee Steinfeld is straight fire. Once again, she snagged the top spot on the autograph hot list. Her performance as Hawkeye's sidekick, Kate Bishop, was a pleasant surprise in the MCU and has further solidified Steinfeld's potential in the hobby. Something tells us that we may see more autographs from her in the future.

With the smashing success of Spider-Man No Way Home, we have listed as many of the Spider-Man products from the past 30 years, many with updated pricing (check out those Precious Metal Gems from the 2017 Fleer Ultra Spider-Man products. Whoa!). Speaking of Spider-Men, Tobey Maguire and Andrew Garfield autographs saw significant activity leading up to No Way Home. They both made the autograph hot list this issue with adjusted pricing.
